Any tax liability may vary depending on your individual circumstances including, but not limited to, your tax residency status and the size of any regular withdrawal you make from your bond. Prudential International Assurance cannot, under any circumstances, undertake tax calculations for bondholders or their advisers. If you have selected a PruFund Protected Fund and wish to take regular withdrawals, the amount guaranteed will be adjusted proportionately for any withdrawals you have made.

For certain products, we may use approved credit reference agencies, tracing companies, financial crime prevention agencies, or publicly available information, to help us to check your identity, as well as to prevent fraud and money laundering; this may include checks on your current or previous addresses. Results of these may be recorded for future reference.

These checks may also be carried out for a joint policy holder or person(s) that you provide personal information on. Should we ever lose contact with you, we may use these agencies to verify your address to help us get back in touch.

Any transfer of your personal information will always be done securely.

Part C – We may use your personal information to make automated decisions or profile you

We, the Prudential Group, our Business Partners, and our Marketing Partners may use your personal information to make automated decisions affecting you or to conduct other profiling (for example, marketing profiling).

Part D – Use of your sensitive personal information

In order to provide certain products or services, we’ll need to collect and process personal information related to your health which are known as “special categories of personal data”. We will use this personal information only for the purpose of fulfilling our contractual obligations and legal responsibilities regarding your policy of insurance or life assurance (see Note 1).
Part E – You’re in control
When it comes to how we use your personal information, you’ve got the right to:

› request a copy of your personal information for free (we may charge you for this if the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive). We shall respond as soon as reasonably possible and at the latest within 30 days from the date of your request;

› in certain circumstances request that we move your personal information to another organisation if you want us to;

› request that we correct anything that’s wrong, or complete any incomplete personal information;

› ask us to delete your personal information if it is no longer needed for the purposes set out in Part A or if there is no other legal basis for the processing;

› limit how we use your personal information or withdraw your consents you have given for the processing of your personal information (including consents to automated decision making);

› complain to a data protection authority or another independent regulator about how we’re using it.

Note 1: This derogation from Art. 9 GDPR is in accordance with Art. 50 of the Irish Data Protection Act 2018. Processing of data concerning health shall be lawful where the processing is necessary and proportionate for the purposes of a policy of insurance or life assurance.

Note 2: To the extent that we process your data for direct marketing or other processing based on our legitimate interest, including any profiling on the basis of our legitimate interests, you have a right to object to such processing.

If you want to do any of these things, or would like an explanation as regards these rights, we’ve explained how you can get in touch in the ‘Contact Us’ section below.

If you do need to speak to us, it’ll be useful to have to hand that the data controller of your personal information is PIA. PIA has also appointed a Data Protection Officer who can be reached at the details shown in the ‘Contact Us’ section of this document.

We may monitor or record calls or any other communication we have with you. This will be for training, for security, or to help us check for quality.

Part F – Acting on someone else’s behalf?
If you give us personal information about another person (or persons), we’ll take that to mean they have appointed and authorised you to act on their behalf. This includes providing consent to:

› our processing of their personal information and sensitive personal information (as we’ve explained in Parts A, B, C, and D above);

› you getting any information protection notices on their behalf.

If for any reason you are concerned as to whether you are permitted to provide us with the other person’s information, please contact us on the phone number provided in the ‘Contact Us’ section of this notice before sending us anything.

Part G – Direct marketing

Notes

22 If there are more than two applicants please photocopy this Declaration, complete and send in with this application.
Section 11 – Declaration of residence outside Ireland

Each Applicant must read these definitions and then complete the declaration.

Please note that the declaration below regarding non-residence in Ireland must be completed before we can make payments.

Important Irish "Exit" Tax may be applied to the bond (for example on payments from the bond) if this declaration is not completed.

Residence definition – company
A company which has its central management and control in Ireland (the State) is resident in the State irrespective of where it is incorporated. A company which does not have its central management and control in Ireland but which is incorporated in the State is resident in the State except where:

- the company or a related company carries on a trade in the State, and either the company is ultimately controlled by persons resident in EU Member States, or resident in countries with which the Republic of Ireland has a double taxation treaty, or the company or a related company are quoted companies on a recognised Stock Exchange in the EU or in a tax treaty country, or
- the company is regarded as not resident in the State under a double taxation treaty between the Republic of Ireland and another country.

It should be noted that the determination of a company’s residence for tax purposes can be complex in certain cases and declarants are referred to the specific legislative provisions which are contained in section 23A Taxes Consolidation Act 1997.

Residence definition – individual
An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if s/he either:

- spends 183 days or more in the State in that tax year, or
- has a combined presence of 280 days in the State, taking into account the number of days spent in the State in that tax year together with the number of days spent in the State in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in the State will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual at any time during the day.

Ordinary residence definition – individual
The term “ordinary residence” as distinct from “residence” relates to a person’s normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in the State for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in the State ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which s/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in the State in 2008 and departs from the State in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year 2011.
